Guideline 17

Roles and Responsibilities

Club Safeguarding Officer
The person within the club has the responsibility for managing and reporting concerns about children or adults at risk and for putting into place procedures to safeguard these individuals in the club.

County/Regional Safeguarding Officer
The person within a sports organisation with the responsibility for managing and reporting concerns about children and adults at risk and for putting into place procedures to safeguard both within the County structure.

National Designated Safeguarding Officer
The designated person within a sports organisation with ultimate responsibility for managing concerns about children and adults at risk and for putting into place procedures to safeguard these individuals in the organisation.

Case Management Group
The role of the case management group (CMG) is to manage the sports organisation's initial response to reported concerns about the welfare or abuse of children and adults at risk, and potential risks from adults or other young people. This includes the level at which the concern will be dealt with (from local to national), which procedures will be used and whether or not the concerns should be discussed with or referred to statutory agencies. The CMG should also monitor progress on cases and report to the organisation’s senior management or board on issues arising from cases and trends which require management action.

Children's Social Care or Children's Services
The statutory organisation responsible for responding to concerns about children and leading investigations about child abuse in partnership with the police. Also, known as Social Services.

Adults Social Care
The statutory organisation responsible for making sure that older people, adults with physical disabilities, mental health needs, learning disabilities and Adults at Risk get the information, advice and support.

Local Safeguarding Children Boards (LSCBs)
LSCBs are responsible for local arrangements for protecting children and young people. They provide inter-agency guidelines for child protection.

Safeguarding Adults Boards (SABs)
The purpose of an SAB is to help and safeguard adults with care and support needs.

Designated Officer (formerly known as a LADO)
The DO must be contacted within one working day in respect of all cases in which it is alleged that a person who works with children has: behaved in a way that has harmed or may have harmed a child, possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child.
